

Recitation #1 Take Home Quiz (20 pts)
Email Answers to Your TA by Friday, 09/28/2018, at 11:59pm

You can find out who your recitation TA is by visiting the Recitations page on the CS 161 Canvas site. Once there, you can either click on the name or check the TA Office Hours page on Canvas to determine the corresponding email address.

Compose an email to the TA with “CS 161 Recitation Quiz” in the subject line.

Failure to email the answers to your TA or using a subject other than the one above results in a zero on this quiz!!!

General Syllabus Questions:

1. Our classroom supports establishing a positive community. Read the course guidelines and etiquette adapted from Dr. Shaw (located on the Community page within the Canvas site). Choose 3 guidelines and write a few sentences explaining why you picked these.
2. What is the late policy for assignments (describe in your own words)?
3. Since all assignments are graded by demoing your program for 10 minutes with a TA within 2 weeks of the due date, it is important you understand where you can schedule a demo time after you turn in your program! How do you go about scheduling this appointment?
4. What happens if you miss a demo with a TA? How do you reschedule a demo?
5. What happens if you demo an assignment past two weeks from the due date, even if the assignment was submitted late?
6. If a student has a nearly-complete assignment that does not compile, what percentage should they expect on that assignment?
7. If you need to miss a lecture, lab, or recitation, who do you email and what should the subject be in each instance?

Recitation Syllabus Questions:

8. When are your designs for assignments due? Where do you submit the design?
9. What happens when you submit your design late?
10. How many total points is your design worth? How many total points is your critique worth?
